This is an amplified and recast version of Lord Morley's celebrated address as Chancellor of the University of Manchester in 1912. The scope of the address is wide and every student of politics or history will find matter of interest and subjects for thought.

THE LEE MANSION. What It Was And What It Is. By Miss Hannah Tutt, Historian of the Marblehead Historical Society. C. B. Webster & Co. Printers, Boston, 1911, pp. 16.

This is a well illustrated account of one of the handsomest town houses built in America during the Colonial period. It was built in 1768 by Col. Jeremiah Lee, a wealthy merchant, and, happily, is now the property of the Marblehead Historical Society.

A HISTORY OF EDUCATION IN MODERN TIMES. By Frank Pierrepont Graves, Ph. D., Professor of History in the University of Pa., &c., New York. The Macmillan Company, 1913, pp. 410.

This is the last of a series of three volumes, and, as the author states, lays emphasis upon educational institutions and practice rather than upon theoretical development. The book is of value to all who are interested in the history of education.

THE REFORMATION IN GERMANY. By Henry C. Vedder, Professor of Church History in Crozer Theological Seminary, New York. The Macmillan Company, 1914, pp. 486.

"The story of the Reformation is here retold by Dr. Vedder in the light of newer historical theory and the results of a generation's research. This is the first attempt in the English language, to interpret the religious struggle of the sixteenth century in terms of economics * * *. If the author's conclusions are accepted many an idol may be shattered, many a theory consigned to the limbo of false ideas, but a clearer and truer appreciation of the significance and worth of the Reformation should be the result."

HUNGARY'S FIGHT FOR NATIONAL EXISTENCE, or The History of The Great Uprising Led by Francis Rakoczi II, 1703-1711. By Lalislas Baron Henzelmuller, Macmillan and Co. Limited, St. Martins Street, London, 1913, pp. 342.

This is the first history in English on Francis Rakoczi and the great national movement which he provoked and led. The present volume covers the period to 1706.

DWELLY'S PARISH RECORDS, Edited by E. Dwelly, F. S. G., Vol. 2. The First Portion of the Bishops' Transcripts at Wells, Section II, Parishes H-Y. Compiled from the original. By Arthur Jewers Herne Bay. Printed and published by the Editor at his Genealogical Offices, Margate Road. MCMXIV, pp. 397.
